NOVEMBER 2011

Let's go home to Gloucester... (Eric on way back from London)

It will be 3 months since we moved to the UK and already Eric and Adrian have felt that their new home is in Gloucester. We are so thankful to God for his provision of this home and for the fact that Eric has settled well in his new school after a tough first few weeks. Adrian also likes nursery but is looking forward to starting reception next year. Thanks to all who prayed for our transition back to the UK and especially for the children.

Lectures, lunches and getting there late!

Getting back into studying has been quite a challenge again. Chasing books in the library, dropping off kids at school before making a lecture and sharing lunch conversations are a world away from what life was like in Spain. Already God is challenging us in many areas of our life and just putting some perspective on what we were doing in our ministry. Growth usually comes with struggle, but we are excited to hear what God has in store for us during our time in Gloucester as well as for the future.

Opportunities for growth and faith!

We were surprised and rather disheartened to realise that Natasha is going to have to go back to Spain to apply for her settlement visa for the UK. She will return mid November for an interview on the 25th and then has to wait until they issue the visa and return her passport which may take up to three months. Because of the uncertainty of how long it will take, Adrian and Caleb will go with her, and then Graham and Eric will join them for Christmas. We are praying for a miracle and a speedy process so that we will hopefully have the visa issued by January. Nonetheless, this will be a difficult time for us as a family being apart. We would appreciate your prayers especially for the children as they don't fully understand the legalities of our modern world.

These last few months have been financially challenging as we get used to living costs in the UK. On top of that, Natasha's visa (over 900€!!) computer problems, and family travel arrangements have really stretched our budget. However, we are very grateful for the many generous gifts we have received since arriving here and the ongoing faithful support of so many of you. Nonetheless, we do realize that we need to raise more support on a regular basis, not just for our immediate needs but for our long term ministry plans. Please could you join us in prayer for this.

Thank you for your love, support and prayers,

Graham, Natasha, Eric, Adrian and Caleb
